CARD OF THANKS

LANG: A tremendous THANKS to the person who did my sidewalks with a snowblower that last snowstorm. My back thanks you too. What a wonderful town I live in... Liz

Our lives changed so much in the last six months, watching a very strong independent woman fail before our eyes but with so many good people, family and friends, we will get through this the best we can. We have to thank the Monroe Hospital & Clinic oncology department/ Dr. Pipp for the effort she gave to Mom. The FHN Hospice team was remarkable and we could not ask for better care given to Mom from Becky Rath and Teresa Turner. Our in home care givers, Sheila Roberts and Brenda Knapp for the days and nights spent making Mom as comfortable as possible. Pastor Vidler it was a blessed service and you made it so very special and just the way Mom wanted it. Law Jones Funeral Home you did not miss a step in asking questions and getting everything just perfect. We have to thank everyone who called, visited, sent flowers and gave memorials in Mom's name. Joyce Crouse who made the desserts and helped get our luncheon set up with the great food from Shaw's Food. To Delbert and Janet Hockman for helping with the luncheon. Also Alan and Art Crouse for all the help at the house and at the luncheon. Again a big thank you to everyone who helped us celebrate Mom's life. Arnette & Ed Heislner and Family; Lori & Scott Cravatta and Family; Vicki & Brian Prowant and Family; Duane Law.

HARDACRE & MICHAEL: Thanks to everyone for the cards, gifts and coming to our party. Amidst a wintry day, it became a special time. Thanks to our families for helping and planning the party. Blaine Hardacre and Bob Michael

Mobil Meth Lab Bust in Thomson

On Thursday, January 26th, the Thomson Police Department conducted a traffic stop which resulted in the arrest of two subjects.

Thirty-two year old Jamie L. Willoughby of Hanover was charged with driving while license suspended, operating an uninsured motor vehicle, unlawful possession of methamphetamine manufacturing precursor, violation of the cannabis control act, possession of drug paraphernalia, illegal transportation of alcohol and failure to appear. Willoughby was transported to the Carroll County Jail.

Thirty-eight year old Terrence Hudson of Hanover was charged with possession of methamphetamine manufacturing material, methamphetamine precursor and illegal transportation of alcohol. Hudson was also transported to the Carroll County Jail. During further investigation, a search warrant was obtained for a residence in Thomson.

During the search two additional subjects were arrested. 28 year old Jay A. Morlock of Thomson was charged with aggravated participation in methamphetamine manufacturing, unlawful possession of methamphetamine manufacturing material, possession of drug paraphernalia, violation of the cannabis control act and possession of methamphetamine. Morlock was transported to the Carroll County Jail. 30 year old Jennifer L. Moore of Thomson was charged with aggravated participation in methamphetamine manufacturing, unlawful possession of methamphetamine manufacturing material, possession of drug paraphernalia, and violation of the cannabis control act and possession of methamphetamine. Moore was also transported to the Carroll County Jail.

Assisting the Thomson Police at the scene were the Carroll County Sheriff's Department, Chadwick Police Department, Savanna Police Department, Illinois State Police Meth Response Team, Blackhawk Area Task Force, Thomson Fire Department and Carroll County State's Attorney Scott Brinkmeier
