There is Still Room on the Carroll County Artisans Map

More than 50 artisans are listed on the Carroll County Artisans Map, and more can be added now. The map was printed and distributed last fall, and funds are available for reprinting. This map shows artists and crafters, performance arts, culinary arts, and lodging. Laminated copies of the map are posted in store windows throughout the county, and print copies have been distributed at welcome kiosks and wineries outside the county.

The cost is $20 for new listings on the artisan map, which will pay for re-design. The due date to be listed on the new map is Friday, June 25. At any time, county artisans are invited to join the Carroll County Artisans through the ACS; membership includes listing on the CCA website and future print materials. But call now to be included on the map! Call John Huggins of Lanark (815-541-0557) or email John at jhuggins@bheic.com.

Re-printing of the Carroll County Artisans map is sponsored by a Rural Affairs Grant, funded through the Artists' Cooperative of Savanna. For those who would like more information, the Carroll County Artisans cooperative has informal planning sessions every month. Contact Heather Houzenga at 321 Gallery if you would like to come eat and talk. All are welcome.
